

presents:

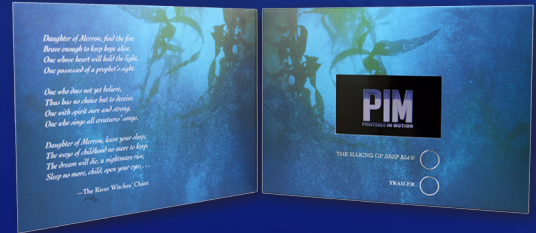

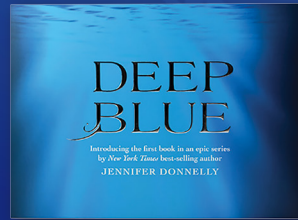

TapeMyDay is the new generation visitor photo and video experience generating substantially higher revenue and publicity by providing a photo / video compilation covering the entire visitor's stay instead of just a single attraction. There are many ways in which this video experience can be delivered to your visitors. Besides uploading to smart phones and downloading from the website, imagine presenting your guests with a premium greeting card, digital yet printed, showing their very own TapeMyDay video. Isn't that cool?!

Making this possible through the latest in display

Out with the old and in with the new: other amusement parks allow their visitors to take home a photo capturing their faces on a ride. You can take it to the next level, and instead offer your visitors the chance to take home an entire video of the experience! Together, we offer you the full solution, allowing faster service, more clients, higher return and an unforgettable experience. Our solution is shockproof, waterproof, wireless, smart, reliable and most importantly customizable.
